

LCBA LUNCHEON

Please join the LCBA for our June luncheon honoring the longstanding members of the bar, as well the holding of the LCBA elections. We will be honoring individuals who have been members of the Bar for 30, 40, and 50 years, followed by elections for new officers of the LCBA. The lunch will be held on Thursday, June 13, 2018 from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. The lunch will be held at the Downtown Athletic Club, at 999 Willamette St. in Eugene. The cost is $16 for advance online registrations (payable at <https://lanecountybar.org/events/> until midnight on June 10th) or $20 for day-of registrations (payable by cash or check at the door). If you intend to pay $20 at the door, please RSVP by email to Erik Bonn or Kristen Brouhard, the Program Co-Chairs, at bonn@gleaveslaw.com or Kristen@adastralegalservices.com. LCBA will apply for one general CLE credit.

From the Board

Thanks to everyone who participated in the Spring Social. The results are in and Derek Johnson has won the "Best Dressed of 2019 Spring Social" for his marvelous Ishihara color test dream tie. We had a great turnout, remarkable award recipients, and excellent introductions. In addition, no one suffered from food poisoning or was hit by falling construction debris, which are the two criteria by which we measure success.

We have one last opportunity to get together before the summer break so please join us on June 13th at the DAC. We will be recognizing our 30, 40 and 50 year members of the LCBA and holding elections for the LCBA Board. There have been many calls for regime change recently and a lot of excitement about the future. Our local U.N. representative will be monitoring the election so please notify the Board if you observe any irregularities.

We have had a great year and appreciate all of the participation at monthly lunches and other events. The Board has already begun work on the monthly lunch schedule for 2019-2020 and it is shaping up to be another action-packed term. Our outgoing program chairs, Kristen Brouhard and Erik Bonn, have put in countless hours over the past several years to facilitate the LCBA events. If you happen to see either of them, please join the Board in saying "thanks." We also want to say "thank you" again to Laura Gibson and Murray Pettit for working on the monthly LCBA Newsletter. See everyone in June.

Announcements

On Thursday June 13, 2019 at 9:30 a.m. at the east end of the State Capitol grounds a plaque will be dedicated honoring Dave Frohnmayer. All are welcome. Dave passed away March 10, 2015. He was a uniquely talented first citizen of Oregon. He worked first in a law firm, then in the federal government and then was an Oregon legislator. He served three terms as Attorney General of the State of Oregon, was a law professor, Dean of the University of Oregon School of Law and then President of the University of Oregon. Prior to his death, he was in private practice and of counsel with the law firm of Harrang Long Gary Rudnick, P.C. He was more than a successful legislator, litigator, educator and administrator; he and his wife Lynn and their family fought a battle for three decades against the rare recessive genetic disease Fanconi anemia (FA); Lynn remains a mainstay of the effort. This disease is horrific and has taken the lives of all three Frohnmayer daughters. Dave and Lynn established the Fanconi Anemia Research Fund which has raised millions of dollars for medical grants and made significant strides not only in understanding FA but in making important contributions to breast cancer research. The Fund has established the David B. Frohnmayer Scientific Research Fund in Dave's honor.

If you have any questions about this event please contact Tom Elden at tomelden92@gmail.com.

UNEXPECTED SERVICES AT THE LAW LIBRARY

Sue Ludington, Law Librarian, Lane County Law Library

When you think of the word “library,” you undoubtedly picture a large room filled with books. Perhaps some of you also include subscription databases and other electronic resources, and maybe a few even conjure up images of (shushing?) librarians, earnest in their desire to assist patrons. But libraries of all kinds continue to grow in the digital age and adapt to the needs of users. Your county Law Library is no different. We’re regularly assessing the materials and services we offer, and pestering attorneys to let us know what they find valuable and what they don’t.

Recently, I had the opportunity to examine a couple of unique Law Library services that, on paper, have been available to attorneys (and limited others) for two decades or more, but have not been well-used or promoted for several years. While it’s true these offerings aren’t as popular as they were in the pre-internet heyday, the fact that at least two attorneys inquired separately about them confirms that there is some interest. And if the Law Library can offer something that makes the job easier for Lane County attorneys, I’m all for it!

So what have we got? First off, we have re-visited the practice of allowing attorneys to have after-hours access to the Law Library. This tradition was established by Board Order in 1980 and permitted attorneys to receive a loaner access card that could be used on evenings/weekends in exchange for a signed agreement. According to historical records, many attorneys took advantage of the service up until 5 or 6 years ago. It’s unclear why usage declined, and perhaps we’ll eventually learn that after-hours access isn’t that much of a benefit for most. But even if just a handful of lawyers find it beneficial, I’m committed to keeping the option.

Interested in getting an after-hours keycard to the Law Library sometime? Give us a call and we’ll walk you through the process.

Our second under-the-radar service is kind of old-school, but an attorney just made use of it last month so maybe there are others who’d be interested. More than 10 years ago, the Lane County Bar Association bestowed a grant to the Law Library towards the purchase of video equipment. The acquisition features an easy-to-use DVD/VHS player and 32” flat screen TV/monitor (which can be connected to either the player or a laptop) situated on a rolling media cart. For a $10.00/day fee, attorneys are permitted to borrow this equipment to utilize as needed in court.

We’ve taken time to revise the rules of use, addressing the issue of transporting the equipment from the PSB basement to the courthouse, and have aspired to make it as user-friendly as possible. I invite you to keep it in mind the next time you want to show video or other visual content in your courtroom trial!

Finally, a quick reminder about our meeting room: It’s small but has a door and can comfortably seat 4-5 people! Several attorneys are making good use of it already, primarily meeting with clients and sometimes conducting depositions, but it’s often vacant. Please call or email if you’d like to learn more or make a reservation.

While these Law Library services may not be seen as critical resources, I like to think even our small offerings help make a positive difference in attorneys’ lives and practices. What else can we do for you? Bring it!
